Library. In ordering always give your first and second choice, that there may be no delay in getting the book you want.

Think what a chunce is here afforded for prudent parents to provide a complete library of classic books for the bome! It may be a little library of 50 or 100 volumes, according to one's fancy and purse; it may be only one or two volumes for presents. The chosen volumes can be secured for Only 17 cents each, and before long you will have a library of your own and will not have felt itse cost. Why, it costs about 2 cents a day to read a book from the circulating libraries, and you can both read most of the world's best books, and own therm afterward, at the present cost of reading them alone, if you kept each book only a week. It is really a wonderful educational opportunity, which we urge our readers to investigate to-day. We pay 25 cents each for treally, paper-covered novels that do us no real benefit, and give us only passing pleasure. For less than this price we can give you can always keep with pride sand read over and over again. Turn over a new leaf! Resolve to own a library of your own of standard bound books. The way is easy and the price within reach of all.
